Harry Thaw will probably have more trouble in getting out of the civil courts than he had with the criminal.

The Republicans will get around the "one man power" objection by holding to the idea that if Taft is elected there will be two men at the head of the Government.

The Durham Herald says that "Governor Glenn was in Raleigh several days ago and was immediately recognized by several people." What does the Herald mean by that, we wonder?

That Republicans don't stand a show for anything anywhere in the opinion of the Democrats who want office, one may judge by the number that are seeking nomination at their party's hands.

The Charlotte Observer says the mountains are filled with summer tourists to their very tops. Where do they all come from? We thought from the number on our beaches that they had all come seashoreward this summer.

The Durham Herald says it discredited the negro-fried-chicken-Bryan story the moment it heard it. So did all others except those who wished to believe it, and even some of them only pretended to think it was true.

The Republicans do not seem to be any nearer the selection of the man they want to run for Governor than when the question was first raised. Those the leaders want won't have it, and those who want it the leaders won't have.

The Republicans come mighty near admitting that the Democrats will elect their candidates for Governor in Ohio and Indiana this year. If they go that far don't you know they are awfully uneasy about their electoral tickets in those States?

We reckon Mr. C. C. Moore is glad now that he did not get that nomination, for he has a much pleasanter occupation on the Charlotte Observer, and he is saved the trouble and fatigue of a canvass of the State. We congratulate him on his fortunate escape.

That was a hot fight of Democrats in Anson county over the primary nomination for State Senator and we are glad that it is over without serious breach in the party as at one time seemed to be threatened. As will be seen in another column, Lockhart won by a very small majority.

In another column we reproduce a letter from Marion Butler received by a prominent citizen of Wilmington. Other copies were received by several of our citizens, and we infer from this that it is being generally circulated in the State. Butler is a foxy politician, but his reputation is so well established in North Carolina that his latest effort will serve rather to amuse than convince.

ELECTION IS CALLED

Library of Congress

Citizens of New Hanover to Vote on $5[illegible] Bond Proposition.

THE COMMISSIONERS MEET

In Called Session the Board Orders an Election Held September 24th Property Valuations—Other Notes of Session.

In called session yesterday afternoon the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an election to be held on the 24th day of September to determine the question of issuing bonds in the sum of $50,000 to "continue and complete the repairing, constructing and improving the public roads and bridges in said county." The members of the board are heartily in favor of the bond issue and so expressed themselves at the meeting.

The body was called to order at 3:30 o'clock with Chairman Duncan McEachern presiding, other members answering to the roll call as follows: M. W. Divine and W. F. Robertson.

Chairman McEachern stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of hearing complaints from any citizens who considered that their property had been assessed too high. Mr. Thomas H. Wright, owner of the Carolina Apartment House, the first and only one of the kind erected in Wilmington, appeared before the board and stated that his property had been assessed at $60,000 which he considered rather excessive, especially in view of the fact that the undertaking was as yet an experiment The commissioners took the same view of the matter and ordered the valuation reduced from $60,000 to $50,000.

William Streeter, colored, who lives some 12 miles from the city, appeared before the board with a claim for a horse which was fatally injured by falling in a hole on the Gordon road one day last week. The negro did not ask for any stipulated sum, saying that he would leave the amount of damage to the members of the board. On motion the matter was referred to the Road and Bridge Committee for investigation to ascertain whether or not the county is liable for any damages.

The report of Dr. Wm. D. McMillan, superintendent of health, regarding the sanitary condition of Wrightsville Beach, given in full in another column of today's paper, was read with a great deal of interest.

The resolution calling the bond election was submitted by Chairman McEachern. The election is called in accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, passed at its 1907 session, entitled "An Act to Empower the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County to issue bonds for road improvement and to construct bridges." The voters who favor the bond issue will vote a ticket upon which is printed: "For continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county," and those opposed with vote a ticket reading as follows: "Against the continuing and completing and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county."

A new registration will be necessary and the Commissioners designated the polling places and named the registrars and judges of the election:

Cape Fear Township—Blossom's store, Castle Haynes, Wm. B. Hand, registrar; W. H. Shearin, J. H. Johnston, judges.

Harnett, Second Division—Township House, Gerritt Walker, registrar; J. A. Everett and Geo. R. Smith, judges.

Masonboro—Township House, W. H. Biddle, registrar; Wm. Lumsden and Andrew Capps, judges.

Federal Point—Capp's Store, Henry Taylor, registrar; J. A. Biddle and Hill Williams, judges.

Wilmington Township.

First Ward—Fourth Street Engine House, F. T. Skipper, registrar; G. H. Heyer and C. L. Spencer, judges.

Second Ward—Old Court House, W. W. Hodges, registrar; T. W. Wood and W. E. Worth, judges.

Third Ward—Giblem Lodge, C. H. Ward, registrar; L. B. Rogers and L. B. Sasser, judges.

Fourth Ward—Worth's Old Ice House, W. H. Lane, registrar; Roger Moore and W. A. French, Jr., judges.

Fifth Ward—Engine House, Sixth Castle streets, J. H. Sykes, registrar; R. A. Burnett and W. W. King, judges.

The registration books will be kept open for twenty days, beginning the 20th of August. The registrars will be at their respective polling places on Saturdays for the purpose of enrolling the qualified electors. On the other days during the period of registrations the registrars will keep the books open at their homes or places of business.

In commenting on the importance of issuing the additional bonds, Chairman McEachern said that he believed that it would be almost a calamity if

Superintendent of Health Makes Report to County Commissioners Regarding Sanitary Condition at Wrightsville Beach.

At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday afternoon Chairman Duncan McEachern read the report of Dr. Wm. D. McMillan, superintendent of health, regarding the sanitary condition of Wrightsville Beach. The report was as follows, a copy of which was ordered to be transmitted to the Mayor of the town of Wrightsville Beach:

"Office of Superintendent of Health of New Hanover County, Wilmington, N. C.

"Complaint having been made to this office concerning the sanitary condition of Wrightsville Beach, particularly the water supply, I today with the assistance of Mr. Shephard (an experienced health officer), examined the entire settlement and found it in a remarkably clean, neat and sanitary condition.

"One pile of garbage and the careless and unguarded use of a window for emptying kitchen slops being the only unsightly or unhealthy object to be found.

"Except Lumina and Tarrymoore Hotel, which run their own water works, the water used on the beach is supplied by the Beach Water Company.

"A thorough inspection was made of the three plants. The tanks were found clean, presenting the appearance of constant and careful attention; the flow free, clear and sparkling.

"About 60,000 gallons is consumed daily from the Beach Water Company's plant, furnished direct from their deep pumps situated on the Hammocks; two tanks on the Hammocks with a capacity of 25,000 gallons; one at the Seashore Hotel, capacity 10,000 gallons, and one at the Carolina Yacht Club with 12,000 gallons capacity. One and one-quarter miles of three and four-inch galvanized pipe conducts the water to the tanks and consumers, so there must be a complete circulation or rather supply of fresh water in both the tanks and pipes every twenty-four hours, the tanks supplying the night consumption and receiving the surplus water during the day.

"The sewerage system at Lumina and the Wrightsville Beach Suburban & Developing Company extends twenty feet beyond the low water mark into the channel and is supplied with manholes 4x4 feet with a depth of six feet retaining the sewerage at high water mark and emptying it on the falling tide. The sewer at Tarrymoore Hotel is constantly flushed by a stream from their water plant and is also provided with manholes which receive the back water from the high tide, but does not deliver it much below water mark.

"The remaining sewers are simply terra cotta pipes to the channel.

"I most respectfully recommend that all new sewers laid from this date be carried by cast iron pipe at least twenty feet beyond low water mark and provide with traps sufficient to retain the sewerage during the high water and empty some on the falling tide, and before the opening of the next season that all sewers on the beach be extended with cast iron pipe at least twenty feet beyond low water mark.

"Respectfully,
"WM. D. McMILLAN, M. D.
"Superintendent of Health."

GONE AFTER THE SMACK

One of the Owners and Pilot With Crew Off For Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Charles Hewitt, one of the owners, Pilot Joe Daniels and a crew from Southport left Sunday afternoon for Savannah, Ga., to bring around to this port the schooner Frank A. Williams, which was recently purchased in New York by Mr. Ed Taylor, of this city and associates at Southport, for deep sea fishing and piloting and from which Captain A. M. Guthrie was drowned off Lookout during the late storm. It will be recalled that the schooner was picked up by the steamer City of Augusta and towed into Savannah after the drowning of the captain and that she weathered the storm practically without damage. At Savannah, upon the arrival of Major J. J. Loughlin, another of the owners, there was an investigation of the drowning of Captain Guthrie, all members of the crew being examined by a United States Commissioner but no responsibility was placed, members of the crew being discharged. It is expected that the Frank A. Williams will reach Southport the last of the week. It is understood that the schooner will be fitted with auxiliary power here.

Tied the Game.

The Compress Giants, a colored baseball team of this city, and the Lumberton team contested for honors on the League Park diamond yesterday afternoon, the game being called at the end of the fifth inning on account of darkness, the score standing 0 to 0. The home team will play here again today and tomorrow. The Compress Giants are scheduled to play two games with the Laurinburg team Thursday and Friday.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

Work of Hospital Commission is Being Pushed Forward By The Architects.

OTHER STATE CAPTIAL NEWS

Committeeman Daniels Leaves For Chicago to Work in Campaign. Opening of Tobacco Market. Army Worm Appears.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C. Aug. 10.—Architects are at work on the plans for new buildings to be provided by the State Hospital Commission for the three State hospitals for the insane at Raleigh, Morganton and Goldsboro.

Frank K. Thompson, of Barrett & Thompson, architects of this city, who have the contract for all this work, left today for Goldsboro to get some preliminaries for the plans of buildings to be erected in connection with the colored institution there for Tuberculosis patients—separate buildings for male and female—and also a building for the care of colored epileptics. They are also preparing now the plans for the two big fireproof concrete buildings to be added to the Central Hospital equipment here for the care of the better class of insane, one building each for men and women, the colony plan to be observed and each building to be completely isolated from all the others.

Governor Glenn is much interested in the movement for North Carolina to do her part toward contributions to the National Democratic campaign fund and heads the popular subscription list with a check for $100.

This was opening day for the Raleigh leaf tobacco market and the warehousemen are well pleased with the start that has been made. More than a half hundred farmers had tobacco here to be sold, mostly primings, however, and the prices ranged from $5 to $36 per hundred pounds.

Mr. Josephus Daniels, editor of the News and Observer, National committeeman and member of the executive committee of the National committee, has gone to Chicago where he will spend much time during the campaign in charge of the literary and press departments of the National Democratic headquarters. He will along with Hon. John E. Lamb and Hon. H. L. Metcalf have the writing of the National Democratic handbook. Thomas J Pence, the well known Washington correspondent, has gone to Chicago with Mrs. Daniels and will have an important work in the National headquarters for the campaign period.

A remarkable request that has just come to the North Carolina Department of Agriculture is from an enterprising correspondence school of telegraphy and is for a directory of all the farmers in North Carolina together with the names of their boys and girls. The commissioner of agriculture was obliged to answer with regrets that no such publication existed.

J. L. Scott, Jr., of Alamance county, is commissioned by Governor Glenn as a member of the board of directors of the Western Hospital for Insane at Morganton in the stead of W. G. Lewis, deceased, of Statesville.

W. E. Futch, Cleveland Ohio, chief of the Department of Insurance, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is in the city for a few days checking up the records of the secretary of the local division. He is an enthusiastic advocate of William Jennings Bryan for president and expresses confidence in a Democratic victory this Fall, and a belief that railroad men generally will support the Democratic National ticket.

An onslaught of the dreaded army worm has just been reported from Durham county, crops in a considerable area near Durham having been badly damaged within a few hours. The locality was visited by Assistant State Entomologist Metcalf who found that by the time he reached the scene the "army" was well nigh exterminated by a fly that is a recognized enemy of the army worm, the flies depositing their eggs on the worms, and the development of the eggs in turn destroying the worms. Mr. Metcalf found one ten-acre field of millet literally distroyed by the army worms before the flies got in their saultary work of extermination.

TOWED TO NEW YORK

Barque John Swann, Previously Reported in Distress Off Coast.

An Associated Press dispatch received last night as follows will be read with interest in local marine circles:

New York, Aug. 10.—The barque John Swan, Captain Mitchell, arrived here today in tow of the tug Prudence from Cape Lookout Cove near Beaufort, N. C., with loss of foremast, jibboom and main topmast during weather. While bound from Jacksonville for this port with lumber the barque was obliged to put into Cape Lookout Cove having lost foremast and all sails attached.

EXCESSIVE RAIN SUNDAY

Over Three Inches Precipitation in Wilmington—Streets Badly Washed and Ponds Formed in Many Places in The City.

The heavy downpour of rain Sunday which came at intervals throughout the afternoon, did more damage to the streets of the city than any rain in the last twelve months, even exceeding the damage from the heavy rains of ten days ago. The rainfall in Wilmington was 3.05. Heavy rains were also reported in the Lake Region, upper Mississippi Valley, and the Rocky Mountain and Plateau regions.

The rain prevented the usual number of visitors to the beach as it was well nigh impossible for them to get to the car line between the heavy showers. A large quantity of sand was washed over the car and railroad tracks which had to be removed in some cases before any progress could be made.

Mayor Springer spent the entire day yesterday with Superintendent of Streets Pickett and Chief of Police Williams going over the city looking after the storm damage. At Third and Campbell streets there is a bad wash, and at foot of Grace street a water main bursted. Many ponds formed in low places and some under buildings, all requiring attention. All places are being marked with red lights at night until the places are repaired. The street force was put to work on the repair work at once and will have the streets in good condition in a few days.

The rains were largely local, and it is not thought the precipitation will affect the streams through the recent flood districts in Pender and Duplin counties. Manager Causey, of the Inter-State Lumber Company with headquarters in Burgaw, was here yesterday and stated that his company's 125 hands would begin logging operations again this week, a hand car having been sent over the tram road yesterday, the men aboard finding that the waters were receding rapidly, though still covering the track in places.

RUSSIAN BARQUE LIBELLED

Capt. Edgar D. Williams Files Salvage Claim Against the Mats.

In the United States District Court in this city yesterday afternoon Hon. John D. Bellamy, counsel for Captain Edgar D. Williams, owner and master of the tug Sea King, filed libel proceedings against the Russian barque Mats, which he recently towed into this port from Cape Lookout where she was picked up just after the late storm, bound with valuable cargo of mahogany wood from Mexico to Havre, France. Only the captain and steward were aboard the ship at the time and she is alleged to have been in a totally helpless condition and in great danger of total loss. Captain Williams in his petition asks that the court adjudicate the amount of salvage that is due him for rescuing the vessel. The Mats has been towed to this port and is now tied up at the wharf of Captain Williams, the presumption being that he has been unable to agree upon the amount of the salvage with the master and owner. The libel proceedings will be served on the master of the barque today.

PROF. KNEISEL LEAVES.

Will Go With Big Musical Production Out of New York as Director.

The many friends of Prof. John F. Kneisel, who so successfully led and managed the splendid Lumina orchestra at Wrightsville Beach this season, will regret to know that he left Sunday evening for New York where he will go out the coming season as musical director of the "Zulu-land Company," one of the biggest musical productions out of the metropolis this year. Prof. Kneisel regretted to give up his engagement at Lumina so soon and left his orchestra there, but the call to the larger engagement was imperative and he joined his company at once. The company will open its season on August 31st.

Mrs. Kneisel will remain in Wilmington the balance of the Summer, joining her husband later.

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 10.—Unable to connect with Wysong's delivery, the Giants went down to defeat today to the tune of 2 to 1. A passed ball in the second and a misjudged fly in the seventh gave the Sailors two runs, while two infield hits, a wild throw by Wysong and another by Ross gave the Giants one run in the eighth. In Goldsboro's half of the ninth, after Rath had robbed James of a nice drive, taking it with one hand by a quick high jump, J. Sullivan popped out to Sharpe, making two out, then Adams got a pass to first; Ryan hit one for two bases through short and Adams had to stop at third. At this stage of the game the crowd went wild and the "Newbern Rooter" went to sleep, but J. L. Sullivan tapped a few fouls and died, short to first. Although the Sailors are credited with six hits only three were clean hits, showing that Howard and Wysong were both in the game at all times. Two of Goldsboro's hits were also "Beaten out" bunts.

Game at Wilson.

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 10.—The game between Raleigh and the Tobacconists this afternoon started off in favor of the visitors because of their scoring in the first inning. The locals went to the bat and were soon down. Then in the second and third innings they scored. From then until the eighth the game was slow and sloppy. In the sixth the visitors scored again, tying the game. In the ninth they ran another man across the plate. Right there the Tobaconists got busy and in the ninth brought in two men making the score 4 to 3 in favor of the Tobacconists.

The features for the visitors were Farmer's two runs and sensational catch by Hoover; for the home team: Gettig furnished amusement for the grandstand when he made a home run from first on what he thought was a safe hit by Mills. The grandstand and bleachers saw fun ahead and urged him on, he ran home. The score:

"NEW SOUTHERN STATESMANSHIP."

"New Southern Statesmanship" is the heading of an article written for the August number of the American Magazine by Ray Stanard Baker, from which we make the following extract and give it editorial space in our papear. There are many truths and a great deal of good sense in the extract we publish though in some of his statements about the South Mr. Baker has shot wide of the mark of accuracy. In this article he says:

"In a former article (The American Magazine for May) I showed how the negroes of the country are divided into two parties or points of view, the greater led by Booker T. Washington, the lesser by W. E. B. DuBois. Washington's party is the party of the opportunist and optimist, which deals with the world as it is: it is a constructive, practical, cheerful party. It emphasizes duties rather than rights. Dr. DuBois' party, on the other hand, represents the critical point of view. It is idealistic and pessimistic; a party of agitation, emphasizing rights rather than duties.

"But these two points of view are by no means peculiar to negroes; they divide all human thought; and the action and reaction between them is the mode of human progress.

"White leadership in the South then, is divided along similar lines with negro leadership—a party of rights and party of duties. But with this wide difference; among the negroes, as I showed, the party of agitation and criticism led by DuBois is far inferior, both numerically and in influence to the party of opportunity and duties led by Washington. For the negroes have been forced to concede the futility of trying to progress by political action and legislation, by rights specified but not earned. Washington's preaching has been:

"'Stop thinking about your rights and get down to work. Get yourself right, and the world will be all right.'

"But among the white people of the South the party of agitation and the emphasis of rights rather than duties is still far in the ascendency. Led by such men as Tillman, Vardaman, Jeff Davis, Hoke Smith, and others, it controls, for the present, the policies of the entire South. It has much to say about the rights of the white man, very little about his duties. It is indeed, doing for the whites by agitation and legislation (often a kind of force) exactly what Dr. DuBois would like to do for the negro, if he could. Tillman and DuBois, in this respect, are of the same type of leader.

"'Agitate, object, fight, says both Tillman and DuBois.

"'Work,' says Washington.

"Now, the same logic of circumstances which produced Booker T. Washington and his significant movement among the negroes has produced a group of new and highly able white leaders. These new leaders say that agitation (while most necessary in its place) would not, after all build up the South; they saw what although the sort of leader typified by Tillman and Vardaman was passing laws and winning elections, he was not, after all, getting anywhere; that race feeling was growing more bitter, often to the injury of Southern prosperity; that progress is not built upon stump speeches. The answer to all this was plain enough:

"'Let us stop talking, forget the race problem, and get to work. It does not matter where we take hold, but let us go to work.'

"And the doctrine of work in the South has become a great propaganda, almost, indeed, a passion. It has found expression in a remarkable growth of industrial activities, cotton mills, coal mines, iron and steel industries; in new methods of farming, in spreading railroads. But more than all else, perhaps, it has developed a new enthusiasm for education, not only for education of the old classical sort, but for industrial and agricultural education—the training of workers. All this, indeed, represents the rebound from years of agitation in which the negro has been 'cussed and discussed,' as one Southerner put it to me, beyond the limit of endurance. Wherever I went in the South among the new industrial and educational leaders I found an active distaste for the discussion of the negro problem. These men were too busy with fine new enterprises to be bothered with ancient and unprofitable issues.

"When I asked Professor Dillard of New Orleans, how he thought the negro question should be treated, he replied: 'With silence.'

"My prescription,' says President Alderman in his address on 'Southern Idealism,' is silence and slow time, faith in the South, and wise training both white and black.'"

LET DEAD ISSUES ALONE.

"The Wilmington Star comments rationally on the bitter Democratic primary campaign in Anson county, mention of which has been made in the Wadesboro correspondence of this paper. This much we want to say to you, men and brethren, that unless these fierce primary fights in the Democratic party are stopped by and by something is going to happen."—Charlotte Observer.

The Observer is right in warning the people of "the something" which is going to happen if these "fierce primary fights" are not stopped.

There is another warning the Democratic papers should give the people, and that is against bringing the prohibition issue of last spring into the party's nominating conventions. That was not a political issue and should not be kept alive. There are much more important issues—and live ones too—before the people now. These lives one and not that settled one should govern the Democrats at the present time.

If that dead issue is made a matter of contention it will turn out to be a two-edged sword, it will cut both ways and be liable to lop off Democratic votes on both sides. "Let the dead past bury its dead" and let the Democrats stand united in the face of the enemy, who, all signs indicate, are preparing to make a desperate fight to strengthen its position in this State at the coming election.

The Republicans, of course, do not entertain the remotest hope of carrying the State, but they count on securing one or, perhaps, two of the Congressional districts and of increasing their strength in the Legislature. For this reason they are glad to see this prohibition question come between Democrats in their county conventions and are always ready to furnish material to promote discord among our people whenever they see a chance to do so, and in some counties, we are sorry to know, they find easy victims to their wily schemes in fostering resentment on the one side or the other of that dead issue.

Every time a Democrat declares he will not vote for this or that man if nominated because he was a prohibitionist or an anti-prohibitionist, as the case may be, he is playing right into the hands of the Republicans, and while the latter are encouraging such declarations and patting the man on the back who makes them and are praising his "independence in politics" they are "laughing in their sleeves" and saying to themselves "what political simpletons these Democrats be."

REPUBLICANS' DILEMMA.

There is a lot of inside work going on in the Republican party management. The Republicans evidently are scared up and realize that they have hard work ahead of them in the National campaign. They are arranging and rearranging their plans for the political battle. The Secretary of their National Committee, through resignation and reappointment has been changed from that position to that of secretary of the advisory committee which will work in harmony with the National Committee's treasurer, this latter position evidently being considered of more importance in the very uncertain state of affairs of the party. This would indicate that the matter of campaign finances was giving the Republicans some trouble. If Mr. Bryan wants only half a million dolars to secure their defeat, evidently they need much more to prevent such defeat and are worried to know whence it is to come.

One step further has been made toward what in time will be sure to come about—the perfection of the army balloon for use in war times. Captain Baldwin has so far succeeded in his experiments as to produce a dirigible balloon which has been accepted by the War Department for the army signal corps—accepted so far as the construction of the balloon is concerned after successful flights with it. The two other requirements by the Government are speed and endurance. These will be tested later on. That the balloon can fly and be controlled in midair has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the board of examiners.

Review of Reviews for August is before us. It is more handsomely illustrated than usual, the frontispiece is a portrait of W. J. Bryan. The table of contents is filled with titles of interesting, instructive and pleasing reading matter. "The Progress of the World," is the general heading for a number of articles on events of the day. There are articles on such public men as Cleveland, Jas. S. Sherman, John W. Worth and John Chandler Harris. There are articles of different phases of railroad financing and a number on present day occurrences of interest to the reading public.

How the people on the beach are enjoying the cool ocean breezes and the invigorating surf baths these sultry days! There has not been for years a summer when the beach was more delightful or gave greater enjoyment to those who were fortunate enough to be able to take in its pleasures.

It does not look like the Hearst party is gaining strength very rapidly in the South. The latest news is of the resignation of J. C. Garlington as National Committeeman from South Carolina. The Independence movement seems to be progressing backward in these parts.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The death of Senator Allison is not looked upon as the mere passing of man. In the line of his party where he dropped out, there is a missing link, and to replace it, there will have to be some careful work performed. His death has awakened apprehension in the political situation.—Newbern Sun.

—Some little while ago we suggested that the business depression by giving many business people vacation leisure would help the summer resorts rather than hurt. And so it seems. The North Carolina mountains, from all accounts, are filled with visitors to the very tops.—Charlotte Observer.

—Unlike mercy, the secret contribution of a great sum of money to politicians curses both him who gives and him who takes. It is a source of political debauchery wherever tolerated. In England it has embarrassed both parties and caused the Nation to blush. The public has seen brewers suddenly converted into barons and bankers into knights, and has understood perfectly that the only reason was a generous subscription to the expenses of a party. The matter has been brought up again and again in Parliament, and Liberal Premiers have vied with Conservative Prime Ministers in making shamefaced explanations of the "birthplace honors," which do not explain.—New York Post.

—If the statement of Van Cleave, the bitterest foe of labor organizations in America, that the Republican platform declaration on the injunction question pleases him and others of his ilk, does not convince every labor man in America that it is his duty to vote against the nominee of the Convention that framed it, then the attitude of the New York Sun will clinch their determination. The Sun is the regular, three-hundred-and-sixty-five-days in every year voice of the trusts. Its poignant humor and brilliant satire is always enlisted on the side of the Van Cleaves and the Morgans and the Harrimans, though it has a devil-may-care air of not being partisan that is calculated to fool the thoughtless.—News and Observer.

—Some of the newspapers are complaining that robberies, assaults and extortion of money are becoming common in the more retired districts of the country. There is nothing very unusual or strange about this. Whoever hasn't any money seeks to get it in the easiest way possible. Work is too irksome in these tropical climates, and if it is possible to live without working and devote themhas such bad taste as to bend his back to earn his living. It is frequently repeated that there is no security in the country. This is not true, and that the very contrary is true is proved by the fact that there are in our rural districts hundreds of men who live without working and devate themselves to the honorable profession of assaulting and robbing with the most astounding tranquility. If the rural districts were insecure these gentry could not live and thrive.—La Lucha of Havana.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Do you think a man ought to be greater than his party?"—"Well," answered Senator Sorghum, "it isn't desirable. But sometimes you can't prevent a man's party from shrinking."—Washington Star.

—The Parson—I intend to pray that you may forgive Casey for throwing that brick at you. The Patient—Mebbe, yer riv'rence 'ud be saving toime if ye'd wait till Oi git well, and then pray for Casey.—Stoper's.

—"I see the soap consumption of India is one ounce a head a year," remarked the father, looking up from his paper. "I say, pop," shouted the young son, with a side glance at his mother, "let's move outto India!"—Yonkers Statesman.

—"And you say you almost starved to death in your last position?" said the kind housewife. "What position was it?" "I was treasurer of a poet's union mum," responded the dusty wayfarer with a deep sigh.—Chicago Daily News.

—Didn't Take it Seriously—Bingley—Here is an English physician who says that talking too much makes women nervous, and he suggests that some way should be found to induce them to keep quiet. Dingley (thoughtfully)—That's an old gag, isn't it?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—Mrs. Newlywed—"Fred, dear, I have done you a great injustice." Mr. Newlywed—"In what way?" Mrs. Newlywed—"Well, I suspected you without reason. I asked several of your friends that you go to the club with if you knew how to play poker, and everyone of them thought a minute and said you didn't.—Chicago Daily News.

—They Needed Other Things—Like most ministers' families they were not extensively blessed with this world's goods. She, however, was the youngest of ten children until her father explained to her of the baby sister who had come in the night. "Well," she said, after due thought. "I 'spose it's all right, papa, but there's many a thing we needed worse."—Delineator.

WOMAN'S POWER

The healthy woman; strong mentally and physically, whose ambition and magnetic influence urge men to deeds of grandeur and heroism; such women are all-powerful.

Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years has been saving women from this awful condition.

Mrs. Louise Jung, of 332 Chestnut St., Detroit, Mich., writes:

"I suffered from a very severe female weakness for a long time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restored my health. I hope it will do other women as much good as it has me."

Mrs. Emma Wheaton, of Vienna, W. Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was a walking shadow. My husband insisted upon my writing to you and trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. It relieved all my pains and misery, and made of me a very different woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

A Trying Moment.

Professor Leopold Schroetter was called to see the Crown Prince Frederick in 1887 before Sir Morrell Mackenzie had reached San Remo. The prince, evidently suspecting the worst, turned to Schroetter after the examination and said, "I request the truth as to my ailment." Schroetter hesitated and made an effort to direct the conversation in another direction, but Frederick insisted. "I am a soldier," he said, "and can look death in the eye. I ask you now plainly, to the point. Is my complaint cancer?" Schroetter could hardly contain himself, and years after the scene when he recalled it he spoke of it as the most painful in his life. He conducted the crown prince to a chair and asked him to be seated. Then he said, "Your imperial highness, you are suffering from a serious complaint, and it is possible that it may develop into carcinoma, but that cannot be determined positively at this moment." Frederick became deathly pale, but never for a moment lost his self control and smiled grimly when he thanked the physician for his honesty.

Coming to an Understanding.

In the amiable way of villagers they were discussing the matrimonial affairs of a couple who, though recently wed, had begun to find the yoke of Hymen a burden.

"'Tis all along o' these hasty marriages," opined one caustic old gentleman, who had been much to the fore in the discussion. "They did not understand each other. They'd nobbut knowed each other for a matter o' seven year."

"Well, that seems long enough," said an interested lady listener.

"Long eno'! Bah! Ye're wrong! When a body's coortin' he canna be too careful. Why, my coortship lasted a matter o' nineteen year!"

"You certainly were careful," agreed the lady listener. "And did you find your plan successful when you married?"

"Ye jump to conclusions," said the old man impatiently. "I understood her then, so I didna marry her!"—St. James' Gazette.

Poor Comfort.

Apropos of the pretensions of those who might be counted as in society, Mrs. Bloomfield Moore in her book on "Sensible Etiquette" tells the following story:

A snobbish young man and his sister after their return home from an evening party were criticising the company, quite unaware that their sensible old uncle was lying awake in his chamber and could hear every word from where they stood in the corridor.

"Why, even the Grinders were there, and you know their father was a grocer. I was never in such a mixed company," said the sister.

"And we will never be again if I can help it," answered the brother.

The uncle called out: "Children, what do you think your grandfather was? He was a bootmaker, and some people say not a very honest one either. Now go to bed."

HOLDING THE BABY.

Introducing a Nice Point In Baby Carriage Etiquette.

"That fellow doesn't know the first thing about the etiquette of the baby carriage," remarked one of a group of men at Thirty-first and Main streets.

The comment was made to all in a general way. One of the group, the man with a frayed collar and a look of patient resignation, gazed anxiously at a couple about to board a car. The mother was sparring in a desperate sort of way with one of those baby carriages which shop salesmen can open and close in a minute and the users in from five to thirty minutes.

"Don't see anything wrong with that," said the man with the frayed collar. "He's got to hold the baby even if she does have to wrestle with the carriage. You don't think he ought to hold the baby and take care of the carriage, too, do you?"

"Well, there's one thing sure," rejoined the objector—"the man doesn't know a thing about baby carriage etiquette. What you want to do it this: If the baby weighs more than the carriage, it's the man's place to hold the baby. If the carriage weighs more, he should hand the baby to his wife."

"Oh, piffle!" interpolated the man with the big black cigar. "You're way off. What he ought to do is to hand the baby to his wife and the carriage to the conductor."—Kansas City Star.

A few intimate friends of the couple accompanied them to Wilmington and were panied them to Wilmington and were were tendered the happiest felicitations of their many friends.

the election failed to carry. He stated that with the issuance of $50,000 bonds the road work of the county could be completed without any additional bond issues. The county, in the opinion of Chairman McEachern, shared in by all the members of the board, was never better prepared to do road work as the rock can now be secured in abundance in the county. In the event that the bonds are not issued the board of commissioners can, if they see fit, levy a road tax of 10 cent on each previous bond issue which would enable them to continue the work but would of course have to be paid by present residents of the county and the future generations, who would reap the benefit of the good roads, would not have anything to pay.

Chairman McEachern was authorized to make all the arrangements for holding the election.

Judgment was given for the full amount in the first action and the latter was continued.

MARION BUTLER TAKES A HAND.

Letters Being Written to Democrats in Behalf of Taft, Et Al.

A ripple of interest was started in local political circles yesterday upon the receipt of letters by several prominent New Hanover Democrats from ex-Senator Marion Butler, of "fragrant memory," advocating Taft for the Presidency and Judge Pritchard for Governor of the State. The letters are from the offices of "Butler & Vale" the ex-Senator's law firm in the Bond Building, Washington, D. C., and with the name of the addressee ommitted are as follows:

"Dear Mr. ——: I am satisfied that a majority of the voters in North Carolina sincerely feel that it would be best for the State as well as the Nation for Judge Taft to be elected President. If a man was nominated for Governor who would appeal to the people of the State as Taft appeals to them against Bryan, I feel that the electoral vote of the State could be carried for Taft.

"With this in view I have been trying to get Judge Pritchard to accept the nomination for Governor. He has not yet consented, but I think he would do so, if he felt that there was a substantial demand for his nomination and it would help carry through the electoral ticket. Now, do you think that a strong Taft and Pritchard Club could be organized in your place, composed of men who have not before voted the State Republican ticket, if Pritchard would accept the nomination?

"Either Hon. John W. Fries, of Winston, or Hon. J. Elwood Cox, of High Point, would make a splendid Governor, but neither of them could conduct as vigorous campaign as Pritchard. If one of them would accept the nomination, however, for Lieutenant Governor, then he would likely become Governor, for Pritchard would almost surely be offered a place in Taft's cabinet.

"Trusting to be favored with an early reply, I am

"Yours very sincerely,
"MARION BUTLER."

CLARKE USED HIS PISTOL

Fired at C. H. Bonham After He Had Been Knocked Down.

The most important case tried at the session of the police court yesterday was that of A. B. Clarke a white man charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon C. H. Bonham. Quite a number of witnesses were introduced and from the evidence it seems that Clarke was in front of Bonham's home on Saturday night and used profane and boisterous language. Bonham went out to remonstrate with him and after a heated conversation Clarke was knocked down. Shortly after this he walked a short distance away, drew a pistol, and fired at Bonham. The bullet spent itself without harm and Clarke was later arrested and held for trial. He was sent over to the higher court under a $50 bond, being represented by L. Clayton Grant, Esq.

Bonham was also indicted for a simple assault and after submitting to the charge was required to pay the costs.

Martha Jones, for disorderly conduct was sent to the county farm for thirty days and George Hall for being drunk and down was sent to the county roads for the same.

The case of Will Hudson and Martin Harper, the two white men charged with assaulting Hartsfield Crandall with a deadly weapon, was continued until the session of court today.

athletics of any kind is thoroughly dependable. Pitcher McDonald is with the Anderson, S. C., team and is not only the best in the League, according to Mr. Brunson, but he is a heavy hitter as well. Terms with the Anderson pitcher were concluded by telegraph yesterday and he has been asked to bring along a heavy-hitting outfielder which he has promised to do in the person of Cooper of the same team. With these additions the team will be in fine shape to walk away with the pennant in spite of a threat said to have been made by Wilson that the effort would be to make Goldsboro winner of the second series.

New Manager for Goldsboro.

The many Wilmington friends of Mr. Lionel Weil, who frequently visits here, will be pleased and interested to know that he has been made manager of the Goldsboro team, succeeding Mr. Horace King, who has resigned. Mr. Weil was formerly treasurer of the team and his elevation to the managerial position is eminently proper. His friends hope to see his "smiling countenance" here the last three days of this week.

Amateur Championship Here?

The Wilmington fans will be interested to know that Hickory, N. C., has challenged the claim of Fayetteville to the amateur baseball championship of the State and that the upper Cape Fear city has accepted the challenge to play six games to decide the matter, suggesting Wilmington as mutual grounds for the games. Mr. J. F. L. Armfield is manager of the Fayetteville team and has telegraphed the Hickory team that he will play in Wilmington, 60 per cent. to go to the winner and 40 to the loser, citing the following reasons for the game to be played here: That as Hickory challenged Fayetteville, it should choose by all precedents the battleground; second, that Hickory stated in its challenge that it was willing to play at Charlotte or any other good town; third, because Wilmington is the best baseball town in the State. The Wilmington fans hope that the games will be played here and the visiting teams may expect crowds when they come.

Currie, N. C., Aug. 10.—The water is now getting out of the creeks and we are looking forward to a great crowd in attendance upon the annual celebration on the famous Moore's Creek battleground here on Thursday of this week. The following letter has been received from Senator Overman, who will make the address on this occasion:

"Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 7th, 1908.

"Mr. James F. Moore, Currie, N. C.

"My Dear Mr. Moore: In regard to my visit to Moore's Creek on the 13th instant, I will speak in Pitt county on Tuesday, the 11th, and thought Tuesday night I would go down to Wilmington and spend Wednesday on the beach, and probably go over to Currie the next morning. I suppose that will give me ample time to reach the battle ground in time to speak.

"Very truly yours,
"LEE S. OVERMAN."

All Field Marshals are expected to meet at the large pavilion at 9 A. M. on the morning of the celebration. The mounted marshals are to meet at Currie at 9:30 A. M. Moore, of the Moore's Creek Monumental Association, will deliver the address of welcome. This will be followed by "The Old North State" by the band and at 11 o'clock the oration of Senator Overman will be listened to. After "The Star Spangled Banner" by the band dinner will be served on the grounds with a meeting of the Confederate veterans at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The public is most cordially invited.

BENEFIT OF RESCUE HOME.

An Entertainment Will be Given at Academy, August 29th.

(Communicated.)

Much interest is being taken in the Rescue Home's benefit performance. Mr. G. M. Fomby reports that he has personally interviewed the Mayor of this city and many of the leading business men, and that each and everyone took a deep interest in the noble cause and that quite a few have given assurance of financial support.

The unfortunate women and helpless children now at the home are already beginning to see a better life ahead of them. They are among friends and will be tenderly cared for. Not only does the Rescue Home deserve more praise, but for the good people of our city for their most generous help and support.

Mr. J. W. Martin, a well known theatrical manager, has taken a deep interest in the cause and has secured the Academy of Music for a big performance to be given Thursday evening, August 20th. PASSENGERS HAD FRIGHT.

Narrow Escape From Accident by Suburban Cars Last Night.

Passengers on the express and local trains of suburban cars bound for the Moonlight dance at the beach early last night had a bad scare just this side of Bradley's Creek station. The express train of three cars was running ahead and just after crossing Bradley's Creek trestle, the air brakes suffered some temporary disarrangement and the cars began rolling back towards the trestle. The local train of two cars with Motorman R. S. Haddock at the controller, was following and making schedule. The strong electric headlight of the freight car which was standing on the turn-out at Bradley's Creek blinded Motorman Haddock until he was almost upon the disabled train. As quick as a flash, however, he took in the situation, kept his wits with him and applied his emergency brakes first; then threw on the emergency. With a hiss and a screech the two cars of the approaching train ground their wheels to a standstill on the rails and Conductor Haddock at once found himself the hero of more than half a hundred frightened women and children on both trains. The damage to the train in front was quickly repaired and both trains passed on without further delay.

SUNDAY NIGHT SHOOTING.

John Sidbury, Colored, Perhaps Fatally Wounded in East Wilmington

John Sidbury, colored, of East Wilmington, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded Sunday night about 10 o'clock near his home by George Simpson, another negro, who made his escape.

Bad blood, it is said, had been existing between the two men for some time and Sunday night they met in what is known as the "Avenue" in East Wilmington. A personal altercation ensued, Simpson drew a pistol and fired, the ball entering Sidbury's back, passing through the stomach and perforating the intestines. Neighbors responded to Sidbury's cries of distress and took him to the hospital in a car. He was still alive late last night but it is said that he may die at any time. The county officers have secured a description of Simpson and will make an effort to arrest him.

SPORTS AT MONTREAT.

Governor Glenn and Dr. Wells Opposing Pitchers on a Team.

At the great Laymen's Missionary Conference that is being held at Montreat, N. C., the visitors aside from the work and bible study of the meeting are finding much time for healthful exercise and recreation. A correspondent writing Saturday from Montreat gives a graphic account of a baseball game on the grounds of the resort, participated in by the clergy and laity in attendance upon the conference. Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., of this city, was the pitcher for one of the teams and Governor R. B. Glenn was the opposing slab artist. D. D.'s and L. L. D's. held down the bases and field positions but the correspondent failed to state the score. His Wilmington friends however, believe that Dr. Wells' ability in the box must have won the victory for his team.

MOONLIGHT AT LUMINA

Pretty Dance at Popular Amusement Palace on Wrightsville Beach.

The repetition of the moonlight dance at Lumina last evening was all and more than the management expected. A number of new features, both in the decorations and order of dancing, were introduced and all in attendance had a delightful evening. A new feature in the decorations was a crescent, five feet high with the face of the man in the moon looking interestingly on. A crow perched on the lower circle was perfectly done. The subdued light, an almost perfect reproduction of the soft and mellow rays of the moon on a glorious night, added much to the beauty and effectiveness of the scene.

The children will be given a souvenir dance from 4 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon and this promises to be most enjoyable.

Fugitive Almost a Year.

After being a fugitive from justice for nearly a year, Caleb Howe, colored was caught last Saturday by Officer Howe and placed in jail pending a preliminary trial on the charge of assaulting Mitchell Davis with a deadly weapon, the latter sustaining painful injury from the wounds inflicted by a knife. When he was captured brass knucks were found concealed on his person and yesterday in Justice Bornemann's court he answered to two charges, and was sent over to the higher court under aggregate bonds of $150. The prosecuting witness, Mitchell, was also charged with assaulting C. H. Hicks with a deadly weapon, the same being a rock, and he was remanded to jail in default of a $50 bond.

Public Exhibtion Today.

Mr. J. F. Newbegin, who is in the city representing the Phoenix Fire Appliance Company, of New York, will give an exhibition in front of the City Hall at 10 o'clock this morning, to which the public is cordially invited. Mr. Newbegin is introducing a dry powder fire extinguisher which has met with wonderful success.

Twenty-Four Convicts.

Twenty-four convicts sentenced at the last term of New Hanover Superior Court to terms on the county roads aggregating nearly 35 years, have been taken out to the stockade and have already begun their sentences. There is much work to do after the recent heavy rains and the recruits will be found quite valuable just at this time.

Mr. J. J. Wood Dead.

A telegram Sunday night announced to friends and relatives in this city the sudden death of Mr. Jesse James Wood, of Sumter, S. C., a brother of Mr. C. E. Wood, of the Wilmington Police Department, and a half brother of Mr. Asa W. Allen, also of this city. The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon from the home of the deceased in Sumter.

—There is an omission to provide for the contingency of the death of President or Vice President between the time of election and that of taking office. This situation has never arisen ,but there is no guarantee that it will not arise and it has been brought to the fore by the recent illness of Mr. Sherman. Suppose that Taft and Sherman should be elected by the Electoral College and that (which God forbid) either Taft or Sherman should die between the day of election and that of inauguration, who would take the vacancy? The late Senator Hoar labored earnestly to provide against this contingency, and in vain. There never had been such a case, and it is assumed that there never will be. Let us hope so. But if such a contingency should arise there might be an embarrassing situation. Congress should and won't provide for such a contingency. Probably the electors would meet again and hold an election, but there is no legal provision for so doing. As about one-fourth of the President have died in office, we must assume that the accident will some time occur between election and inauguration.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Thinks It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at R. R. A GHOST STORY.

The Spectral Horseman That Visits Wycollar Hall.

This ghost story is contributed by a correspondent of an English magazine: "Wycollar Hall, near Colne, was long the seat of the Cunliffes of Billington. They were noted persons in their time, but evil days came, and their ancestral estates passed out of their hands. In the days of the commonwealth their loyalty cost them dear, and ultimately they retired to Wycollar with a remnant only of their once extensive property. About 1819 the last of the family passed away, and the hall is now a mass of ruins. Little but the antique fireplace remains entire, and even the room alluded to in the following legend cannot now be identified. Tradition says that once every year a specter horseman visits Wycollar Hall. He is attired in the costume of the early Stuart period, and the trappings of his horse are of a most uncouth description.

"On the evening of his visit the weather is always wild and tempestuous. There is no moon to light the lonely roads, and the residents of the district do not venture out of their cottages. When the wind howls loudest the horseman can be heard dashing up the road at full speed, and, after crossing the narrow bridge, he suddenly stops at the door of the hall. The rider then dismounts and makes his way up the broad oaken stairs into one of the rooms of the house. Dreadful screams, as from a woman, are then heard, which soon subside into groans. The horseman then makes his appearance at the door, at once mounts his steed and gallops off.

"His body can be seen through by those who may chance to be present; his horse appears to be wild with rage, and its nostrils stream with fire. The tradition is that one of the Cunliffes murdered his wife in that room and that the specter horseman is the ghost of the murderer, who is doomed to pay an annual visit to the home of his victim. She is said to have predicted the extinction of the family, which, according to the story, has been literally fulfilled."

Fiction Ready Made.

"Have you ever read any of Mrs. Gailey's stories?"

"Yes; they're awfully improbable, aren't they? I don't see how she imagines such things."

"She doesn't imagine them. She just makes notes of the excuses her husband gives her when he gets home late at night."—Philadelphia Press.

Comfort.

Little Mary's mamma gave Uncle Ben, the coachman, directions to drown a lot of kittens, but not to let Mary know of it. She heard of the order in some way and said to Ben, with tears in her eyes: "Uncle Ben, please warm the water. It will be more comfortable."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Charlotte Observer: Parties coming from Stokes county report the peach and apple crop there as being immense and the people are making the best of it. There are said to be over one hundred and fifty bonded distilleries in Stokes alone.

—Kinston Free Press: Dr. J. M. Hodges, of LaGrange, lost a barn of tobacco by fire this morning. A few mornings ago, Mr. W. B. Alphin, who lives near LaGrange, also lost a barn by fire and one barn full of tobacco collapsed. This though is not a total loss.

—News and Observer: The nineteenth annual convention and tournament of the North Carolina Volunteer Firemen's Association, the organization of the colored fire fighters of the State, will be held at Rocky Mount, August 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th.

—Kinston Free Press: Another mad dog was killed on the streets of Kinston, this morning. Mr. F. S. Langley saw the dog acting in peculiar manner and undoubtedly suffering with the rabies, and lost no time in shipping him off to the canine happy hunting ground. The dog was one of those that escaped from the calaboose Thursday.

—Marion, Aug. 8.—Mr. M. J. Coples, general manager of the C. C. & O. Railway, was in town and informed your correspondent that he had traveled all the way from Johnson City to Marion by rail over his new road. The track is laid but it will be September 1st before a regular passenger schedule will be inaugurated. Work is being pushed on the road south of Marion to Bostic.

—Wadesboro, Aug. 8.—After one of the most heated campaigns in the history of Anson county returns from the Democratic primaries tonight indicate that James A. Lockhart has been nominated for the State Senate over W. J. McLendon, by a majority of 36 votes. C. C. Coxe is nominated for the House of Representatives. These are all the returns available now.

—Winston Sentinel: A special train consisting of five coaches was run from Greensboro to this city this afternoon, the train arriving at half-past two o'clock. Three of the coaches were laden to their utmost capacity with ardent Greensboro fans, but the other two were very sparsely occupied. In all there were about 350 people who came up to see the game, the other 41,650 remaining at home to get the news by telegraph.

—Winston Journal: After having been struck in the head by Mr. Frank Bailey, whose sister he is alleged to have insulted, at the ball park yesterday afternoon, and having been arrested and later admitted to bail at the police station, Tom J. Lyons, a Greensboro rooter, was met by four Winston rooters in the hall of the municipal building as he was walking to liberty last evening and was badly beaten. Lyons was again locked up by the police.

—Winston Journal: Mr. Summer M. Ramsey, who has been managing editor of The Journal for several months, has resigned to accept the position of telegraph editor of the Times-Dispatch, at Richmond, Va. Mr. Ramsey has acceptably and capably filled the position he has occupied on the staff of this paper and it is with regret that we see him leave the Journal and Winston-Salem, even to enter a larger field of service in his profession. Mr. Ramsey's successor will be announced within a few days.

—Newbern, N. C., Aug. 8.—S. G. Parsons, white, was killed at Vanceboro this evening by a train on the Norfolk and Southern Railroad. Parsons was aged about 45 years, was very deaf and did not hear the train. The engineer whistled repeatedly and applied the emergency brake, but too late. The train was going rapidly and Parsons was knocked across the track, and both legs were cut off. He lived only a few minutes. The coroner's jury renddered a verdict of unavoidable accident and exonerated the railway company.

—Durham, Aug. 8.—It is reported that the old time army worms have made their appearance in this section and where the worms appear havoc is being played with crops. At the county farm, some four miles from this city, the worms appeared in a piece of millet and within forty-eight hours the little lot of millet was almost entirely destroyed. The superintendent of the farm has several acres in millet and he is ploughing around the infected lot and trying to destroy the worms. He tells me that on Tuesday there was not a worm to be seen in the millet and that today there are millions there.

—Tarboro Southerner: Hon. W. W. Kitchin relates an incident of politics in 1892 that is amusing and at the same time illustrative of that class of office seekers, who desire only the office and are willing to be elected on any old pledge. The convention was in session in his district to nominate a candidate for Congress and the delegates were waiting for the committee on resolutions to report. One delegate arose and moved to proceed with the nomination "for," said he, "you all know that B— W— will be nominated and you can't make a platform that he won't stand on." This incident sounds very much like Taft, Chicago and Teddy.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 10.—The cotton market was very weak and unsettled today wih October contracts experiencing a sensational decline under general liquidation and bear pressure. The close was easy at a net loss of 13 to 31 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales.

The market opened steady at an advance of 9 points on August which was influenced by a little covering in the absence of offerings but the general list was 2 to 4 points net lower owing to easy cables, good weather favorable crop accounts. At the beginning the chief selling seemed to be for the account of local bears who operated aggressively but on a scale down offerings became more general and during the afternoon the impression prevailed that some Wall street bulls were throwing over their cotton. The market became very weak and October sold off to 9.33 or 31 points net lower and 52 points under the high level of last Friday. Later months declined also, with prices showing a net loss of 17 to 20 points, and closing within a point of the lowest. August was comparatively quiet and at the close was only 13 points net lower. Expectations of weakness in Southern spot markets with the approach of the marketing season under favorable crop conditions, were undoubtedly influential in the decline and there was considerable southern selling through commission houses during the day.

Receipts at the ports today were 3,952 bales against 2,541 bales last week and 1,502 bales a year ago. For the week 25,000 bales against 21,983 last week and 8,771 bales last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 491 bales against 202 last year and at Houston 2,402 bales against 786 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points lower; middling uplands 10.65; middling gulf 10.90. sales 1,700 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed easy.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 10.—The large dress goods houses made their initial showing during the day at prices from 7 to 10 per cent. below last year's values. Orders have begun to come in more freely. The cotton goods trade is in waiting the result of Wednesday's auction of 25,000 packages and many large buyers from all parts of the country are already on the ground. Raw silk values are so firm tha manufacturers are complaining considerably.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 10.—The tone of the stock market was nervous and irregular at times today but the sweep of the broadened demand was sufficient to dominate the upward course of prices in spite of some setbacks and some obstacles opposed. Within an hour after the opening there was a break in prices that approached in violence that of last Friday. The same stocks, American Smelting and National Lead were conspicuous features of the break which were supposed o be due to a phase of a sensational advertising campaign to attract speculative interest in the market now being waged by a Boston speculator. The market was rended rather feverish by the influx of buying orders from outside sources. The immediate news of the day was not of much influence. The news of the crops was reassuring. The highest prices of the present movement were made during he course of today and advances were well sustained at the closing.

Bonds were firm. Total sales par value $4,990,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 921,600 shares.

The Candidate Receives a Number of Callers Whose Reports Please Him.

CONDITION OF CAMPAIGN

Most Satisfactory From Account of All Callers Who Report Present Conditions—The Bryan and Kern Club—The Labor Vote.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Fairview, Loncoln, Neb., Aug. 10.—From the lips of numerous callers from various parts of the country and from letters, William J. Bryan today received gratifying reports regarding the present outlook as affecting his candidacy for the presidency of the United States. Although mfwtaosh United States. Altogether he had one of the busiest days since his nomination.

In addition to some traveling men, the visitors included Representative Henry Clayton, of Alabama, chairman of the committee on notification; Dr. J. W. McClure, of Sedalia, Mo., a member of the committee; and many others.

Knowledge of the fact that General Henry D. Douglas, of New York, had organized a Bryan and Kern Club, composed of Southerners living in the Empire State, brought unbounded pleasure to Mr. Bryan. The information was contained in a letter received at Fairview today. General Douglas, who is a native of Maryland, commanded a brigade in General Lee's corps to which colonel Bryan's third Nebraska regiment was attached. Mr. Bryan gave expression to his feelings on the subject by making the following statement believing that General Douglas' action would be followed by Southerners in other northern States:

"I am very much gratified to hear of it. We have a large number of Southern Democrats in the city of New York and they have won prominence in all departments of the city's activity. They have retained their love for fundamental Democratic principles and are in position to contribute to the party's success in that State. I am more than pleased to hear of the organization of this club."

The success of Adlai E. Stevenson, Mr. Bryan's running mate in 1900. in the recent Illinois primaries for the governorship nomination attracted public attention.

"While I take no part in the contests between Democrats before the conventions or primaries," he said, "I am sure I will be pardoned in this case if I say that while we had a number of worthy Democrats aspiring to the Governorship in Illinois, no one among them was superior in his qualifications of Mr. Stevenson. I believe he will make a very strong candidiate and will greatly aid the national ticket. The dissatisfied Republicans and there are many of them in Illinois, will feel that no harm could come to the State from Mr. Stevenson's election. His large public service and his sterling qualities combine to make him the ideal candidate and he will make an ideal governor."

The visit of Henry George, Jr., lasted an hour. His opposition to the idea of the guaranty of bank deposits was well known to Mr. Bryan but that will not prevent his supporting the Democratic ticket; for he said he wanted to see Democracy win in November.

To the newspaper men Mr. George declared that if he could trust the signs he noted a trade union movement on in New York, similar to that in 1886 when his father conducted his campaign. "This is the first time in many years, except in the case of Representative Littlefield, of Maine," said Mr. George, "that President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor has been in a political fight. It is very significant." In his opinion, trades unions were more in politics in the present campaign than he had ever known them to be "and that," re said, "is saying a good deal." There were conditions, he remarked, such as hard times and labor injunctions, that had aroused the laboring men to action.

In the afternoon he played golf and in the evening again went at his correspondence. Mr. A. I. Vorys, Mr. Taft's Ohio chief-of-staff, will arrive here for a conference tomorrow or Wednesday. Frank H. Hitchcock will arrive Wednesday, at which time it is expected the personnel of the advisory committee, of which Elmer Dover is to be secretary, will be directed upon. Plans for the general campaign will be discussed at this conference, when it is believed final decision will be reached regarding Mr. Taft's personal arrangements. ILLEGAL COMBINE OF RAILROADS

Freight Increase Caused Texas Commission to File Complaint Against Sixty-Seven.

UNLAWFUL AGREEMENT

Rates Increased As Result of Action of Southwestern Traffic Association and Case is One of Widespread Importance in South.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Aug. 10.—The railroad commission of Texas today filed a formal complaint with the Inter-State Commerce Commission against sixty seven railroads and other common carriers alleging a conspiracy on the part of the defendants through the Southwestern Traffic Association for the suppression of competition and restraint of trade in the recent action increasing freight rates to common points in Texas. The commission will forward notice of this complaint to all the carriers involved and will give them fifteen days to reply, the usual period allowed for answering a complaint being twenty days. The commission will expedite this case as much as possible on account of its widespread importance.

The complaint is signed by Allison Mayfield, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission with R. V. Davidson, attorney general and Claude Pollard, assistant attorney general of the State of Texas countersigning the paper.

The complaint undertakes to compare the alleged cost of maintenance and operation of the railroads with the actual cost and the claimed indebtedness which is supposed to justify the increase. The railroad commission of Texas, it appears, has appraised the cost of construction and operation of the roads, as well as the actual indebtedness upon which the rates may be fairly based.

Eight freight schedules which have recently been filed with the commission are made the basis of the complaint, and all are claimed to have been brought about by an unlawful agreement between the defendant carriers and the Southwestern Traffic Association, of which they are members or whose members represent, through power of attorney, those who are not. It declares that the increased rates will fall primarily upon the commodities of prime utility and daily necessity; that they will seriously disturb trade relations, causing loss to shippers and the consuming public, and that the increased tax, so far as Texas is concerned, will amount to $2,653.000 a year.

Senator Culberson was actively associated with the representatives of the Texas State railroad commissioners in the framing of this complaint.

A FEARFUL EXPLOSION

Eight Men Killed, Many Others Wounded and an Immense Amount of Damage Done—The Cause of Accident a Mystery.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

York, Pa., Aug. 10.—Eight men were killed, nearly a score of others more or less seriously injured and thousands of dollars worth of property damaged by the explosion of a boiler in the York Rolling Mill late this afternoon.

The boiler which was located in the centre of the mill exploded without a moment's warning. A rescue party was quickly organized and search for the bodies was instituted.

Ambulances from the York hospital were hurried to the scene, but owing to the number of dead and injured, delivery wagons and other conveyances were pressed into service in order that the injured might be rushed to the hospital.

While the injured were being looked after the bodies of the dead were being carried from the ruins of the building. A majority of those killed had their heads and limbs torn from their bodies and were so badly mangled that identity was almost an impossibility.

The mill had been closed down for about a week and two score of men were engaged in making repairs to an engine. The men were working close to the boiler and when the explosion occurred not one of them was able to make his escape.

The shock was so terrific that it demolished a large portion of the mill and sent heavy pieces of twisted iron and metal in all directions. The plant of the Broomal, Schmidt and Steacy Company, located near the scene of the explosion, was badly damaged and a horse which was standing 300 yards distant from the mill was instantly killed. Box cars on the railroad siding adjoining the mill were torn to splinters and several persons near the building were slightly injured by flying debris.

The shock was felt over the entire city The head of the boiler, about four feet square, was hurled nearly a block.

The injured are all expected to recover.

FATAL AUTO EXPLOSION.

Two Were Instantly Killed and Others Injured at Painesville.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Painesville, O., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Mary Rowden, 65 years old, and Mrs. Beckwith, 43 years old, were instantly killed and Frederick Beckwith, 45 years old, perhaps fatally injured and Bessie Beckwith, 16 years old, his daughter, badly bruised and burned by the explosion of a steam automobile at the foot of Stickney Hill, about 8 miles from Painesville today.

Mr. Beckwith, accompanied by his mother-in-law, wife and daughter, was on his way from their home at Windsor, O., to this city and was running his machine at a rate of about eight miles an hour when it exploded. The occupants of the car were hurled in all directions. Mr. Rowden who was on the front seat with Beckwith, was found about 45 feet in front of the wreck, while Beckwith landed about the same distance to the right. Mrs. Beckwith was hurled 25 feet in the air. Bessie Beckwith was thrown 15 feet, and sustained severe bruises. An ambulance conveyed the injured to this city.

—New York, Aug. 8.—"Evelyn is a dear little thing, but she's an awful story teller. There isn't a word of truth in that tale she told about Stanford White on the witness stand. She simply traduced her benefactor to save herself Harry is a fine fellow and a good spender, but he isn't crazy. He is just the victim of his own colossal egotism. They may say what they please about Stanford White, but he was the gentlest, the kindest, the most thoughtful and considerate man that ever lived. I never heard a man or woman who knew him personally say a hard word against him." In these words Miss Hattie Forsythe summed up her opinion of the characters of the three principal actors in the Thaw White tragedy.

THAW BANKRUPTCY TO CAUSE FIGHT

A Legal Battle Will Result If Attempt is Made to Move Him to Pittsburg.

WAS EXAMINED YESTERDAY

Jerome Will Not Submit to Thaw Being Removed From Jurisdiction of New York Courts — The Details.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 10.—The probability that some New York man may soon succeed Detective Roger O'Mara now serving as receiver and custodian of the estate of Harry K. Thaw, is the proposition in the much complicated case most generally discussed in Pittsburg tonight. This is based upon the provisions of the Federal bankruptcy law. It is admitted by all having a knowledge of this law that creditors have the right at their first meeting to elect a trustee to take charge of all property of a petitioner in bankruptcy and that such trustee immediately supersedes any receiver that may previously have been appointed by any other authority.

Acting upon this provision it is surmised, the creditors, a majority of whom are residents of New York, are likely to make a concerted move for one of their own selection to act as trustee.

The fiercest legal fight, however, is expected because of reports from New York that should an attempt be made to bring Thaw here, Jerome, it is said, will oppose any such move, fearing that if Thaw, once removed from the jurisdiction of New York courts there will be trouble in having him returned to that jurisdiction. Under the bankruptcy law should the referee call for Thaw and he fail to appear, such failure would constitute contempt. Hence the prospect of a clash between State and Federal authorities.

Legal authorities here agree that there is no such precedent governing the questions raised in this case, and all are watching developments with much interest.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Harry K. Thaw was taken from the jail on the third floor of the court house to the supervisors' room on the second floor this morning to be examined in proceedings instituted by Mrs. Ella Hayt, of Poughkeepsie, a judgment creditor of John P. Wilson, of this city, who has sued Thaw for $300 additional compensation for testifying in his behalf. The purpose of Mrs. Hayt's proceedings is to restrain Thaw from paying Dr. Wilson any money in case the latter obtains a judgment. Lawyers here express the opinion that Thaw's going into bankruptcy practically disposes of the Wilson proceedings, but the attorneys are proceeding with both the Wilson and Hayt matters regardless of the bankruptcy phase of the situation.

The Hayt matter deprived Thaw of a trip to Fishkill landing. John Schlosser, referee in the Wilson case had a hearing set for this morning and as Thaw was required to appear before Holmes Vandewater, referee in the Hayt matter, in this city, the Schlosser hearing was adjourned to Friday. After Thaw had been sworn and adjournment was taken to 11:30 to the office of Thaw's attorney. Chas. Morschauser, adjourned the court.

Gov. Hughes Brings Charge of Neglect of Duty Against Sheriff Bradley.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Copies of charges of alleged neglect of duty, for failure to suppress the alleged gambling at Saratoga Springs, with a request for his removal from office were served upon Sheriff John Bradley, Jr., of Saratoga county, tonight by Ben Smith, confidential stenographere to Governor Hughes. The charges were filed with Governor Hughes by Walter Laidlaw, as chairman of the anti-race track gambling campaign committee with offices in New York. Sheriff Bradley is summoned to appear in his own defense in the executive chamber at Albany on August 15th, at 3 P. M. The Governor has directed Sheriff Bradley to file his answer to the charges by that time.

The charges consist of eight specifications and are dated New York City August 8. The anti-race track gabbling campaign committee which was deeply interested in the passage of the so-called Agnew-Hart anti-race track gambling bills, alleges among other things that although Sheriff Bradley's attention was specifically called to violations of the anti-race track gambling laws.

Rock Candy Syr. vs. Thin People

Thin and delicate people woul do well to remember that there is nothing more health-giving and tissue-building than PURE ROCK CANDY SYRUP. It is exceedingly wholesome and nutritious. Combined with the pure juices of various fruits, the combination is not only nutritious and wholesome, but very palatable.

Many people, and not a few in Wilmington, mix rock candy syrup with vanilla or some other favorite flavor and use it for eating with batter cakes, waffles and the like, and there is nothing more delicious, palatable and nutritious than such a combination for breakfast. Breakfast foods and such "fodder" are simply not in it with rock candy syrup.

Pure (absolutely so) Rock Candy Syrup can be obtained by the pint, quart, or any quantity from the
